אַסְפְּרָה שְׁמִי לְאַחַי בְּתוֹךְ קָהַל אֶהְלִיךָ:

Asapra shimcha l'echai, b'toch kahal aha'lecha (Psalm 22:23)

I will describe Your essence to my brethren, and praise You in my community.

This world can seem like a dangerous place, and yet my awareness of God's presence saves me again and again. I can strengthen that awareness through my heartfelt and grateful expression. My relationships are strengthened when I communicate what is most important to me. The expression of my faith is an inspiration to others that may be struggling. My song of praise is a force of encouragement in difficult times.
