

Seeing, Knowing, Loving Us!

יְהוָה בְּהֵיכַל קִדְשׁוֹ יְהוָה בַּשָּׁמַיִם כְּסֵאוֹ

Havayah b'haychal kodsho, Havayah Bashamayim kiso (Psalm 11:4)

God is in his Holy Temple; God is on his Heavenly Throne.
Seeing, knowing, loving us!

The Divine Mystery permeates this world, making it into a place of holiness. The Divine Mystery is consciousness itself, which has the widest perspective and sees us clearly. That Divine gaze is filled with forgiveness, compassion and an abundance of wisdom, piercing all illusion. When we enter into a state of being seen, known and loved completely, we are transformed by that Divine gaze and we can know ourselves from that widest perspective.

(In this chant I am pronouncing the unpronounceable יְהוָה! as HaVaYaH which is a name that invokes the aspect of God that is Being itself.)
