

The Vision of You

אֲנִי בְצֶדֶק אֶחְזֶנָּה פָּנֶיךָ
אֶשְׁבְּעָה בְּהַקִּיץ תְּמוּנָתְךָ

*Aní, b'tzedek echezeh fanecha;
es'b'ah v'hakitz t'munatecha (Psalm 17:15)*

Then I, through justice, will behold Your face;
Awake, I am filled with the vision of You.

Psalm 17 is filled with pleas of protection from all the dangers and evils of this world. The Psalm concludes with the realization that, it is only through our own righteousness that we will have access to the flow of Grace. We are all made in the image of God. Yet only when we are truly awake, can we see, know and manifest our Divine likeness.
