

Silence Is Praise

לֵךְ דְּמִיָּה תְהִלָּה

L'cha dumiyah t'hilah

For You silence is praise. (Psalm 65:2)

With my silence, I am creating a space within me for the Divine Presence to dwell. I am inviting God in. That invitation is the most profound praise, because I am saying with my silence, "There is nothing more important, nothing more precious than to be with You, God."