Answer me, O LORD, according to Your great love;
in accordance with Your abundant compassion
turn Your Face to me; (Psalm 69:17)

When we feel stuck; when we feel weary; when we don't know where to turn for support, encouragement or inspiration... it is then that we turn to God the Great Mystery, whose face is both everywhere and also hidden. When we become vulnerable enough to show our own true face, then God's face is revealed. It is then that we can receive Her great love and flowing compassion.
